

Canteloube - Danses Roumaines for Tuba or Bass Trombone & Piano arranged by Ralph Sauer

Danses Roumaines for Tuba or Bass Trombone and Piano by Joseph Canteloube, arranged by Ralph Sauer. Danses Roumaines by Canteloube are six Romanian dances originally for solo Piano, written in 1930 after folk songs collected by Michel Vulpesco. The composer is best known for his collection of orchestrated folksongs from the Auvergne region of France titled Chants d'Auvergne. The movements in order are: 1. Hora de Jalomitza (Jalomitzian Dance) 2. Dame Jeanne (Lady Jean) 3. Les Olteniens sont partis pour faucher (The Olteniens go reaping) 4. Helene (Helen) 5. Hora de la mariee (The Marriage Dance) 6. A Ceinture Rouge (A Red Belt). About 18 minutes in length, these six movements are suitable for advanced performers.
