

A Southern Womans Story

Phoebe Yates Pembers A Southern Womans Story is the inaugural volume in the University of South Carolina Presss new paperback series, American Civil War Classics. First published in 1879, A Southern Womans Story chronicles Phoebe Pembers experiences as matron of the Confederate Chimborazo Hospital from November 1862 until the fall of Richmond in April 1865. Long an important source in Confederate history, A Southern Womans Story is also a valuable book for students and scholars of womens history and the social history of the Civil War.
