

Boardwalk

Warning: This book contains edgy young adult content. Parental discretion is advised. Lakewood Beach. Sand and sunshine. Bikinis and flip-flops. The waves beckon beach-goers for fun in the sun. Like many young girls, fifteen year-old Lauren Bly hopes this summer vacation will be filled with romance and adventure: leisurely walks along the pier, long-stemmed roses, and maybe even her first real kiss under the moonlit sky. But working at her Aunts ice cream shop on the boardwalk and babysitting her baby brother each morning leaves her little time for meeting someone special at the beach... until he arrives... with the face of an angel... and a heart of darkness. A mysterious young man arrives at the coastal town and mesmerizes the locals with his wit and charming good looks. He could choose any girl on the boardwalk, yet he sets his sights on Lauren, an innocent, naive teen whose vulnerability and pliability entice him. He wins her trust with love and affection, but a sinister plan soon begins to unfold. His desire to consume her innocence and possess her for himself threatens to destroy her. Laurens longing for romance, as well as her grief from a family tragedy, blinds her from the relationships turn into abusive darkness.
