

The Value Of Women In The Society: All Manufacturer Know The Value Of Their Products

THE VALUE
OF WOMEN
IN THE SOCIETY
ALL MANUFACTURER KNOW
THE VALUE OF
THEIR PRODUCTS
REV.LYDOR BRUNICE

From the far west of the continent of Africa, I can say to all women your strength are immense and indomptable. From the Middle East to Asia I can say to all those women that your burden is heavy, but may the heat of your body removes your veil and the magnificence of your beautiful face will shine like the sun. From England to Europe, may your voice and the move of your dance make you always be exceptional? From Canada to America your hospitality and your hard work dedication make all of you the ultimate warrior. Finally, from Central America to Caribbean, may your tropical love and sense of tourist make all of you the perfect receptionist and the servant leader of your guest? My deep desire for all women is to recognize that you are more than what the societies say about you. You are more then what people expect from you. You are leaders among leaders. You have more value than anything on earth. I mean that your characteristics defined your destiny. Your personality describes your interests. Your silent speaks louder than your request. Your thoughts are more profound than a dictionary. Your meaning can only be revealed by you. Your love is limitless. Your hospitality is immense. Your talent is impressive. Your gift is costless. Your patient is sufficient. Your words are meaningful. Your presence is magnificent and incomparable. and your being is everlasting
