

Where You Belong

NATIONAL BOOK AWARD FINALIST.

Its October 11, 1963, in the Bronx, New York. Thirteen-year-old Fiona, her mother, and three siblings have just been evicted from their apartment. Now the family must move in with Aunt Maggie and her six kids. Better to go to Daddys place, Fionas brother tells her. Better to risk getting beaten than to go someplace you dont belong. The beating does come, and Fiona runs away in terror. Alone, hungry, with no choices left, she wanders into the black neighborhooda place her Irish-American parents talk about with scorn. Coming here, though, reunites Fiona with an old classmate, Yolanda. They were never able to be real friends at schoola friendship between a black girl and a white girl was rare in the Bronx. But today is going to be different. Two girls who dont feel they belong anywhere will find a special place to belongwith each other. Can their friendship survive? Together they learn that beyond the bigotry and chaos that adults leave behind lie reasons for hope, and the streets of the Bronx offer a path for a powerful journey of self-discovery.
