

The Pied Piper of Hamelin - Illustrated by Kate Greenaway

Kate Greenaway (1846-1901) is one of the most popular childrens book illustrators of all time. Edmund Evans produced her first book in 1879, which sold out resulting in triumph and gaining Greenaway her reputation. She has enchanted people, young and old, for over one hundred years with her watercolour illustrations of sweet, charming eighteenth century children with their quaint costumes and idyllic scenes. This book The Pied Piper Of Hamelin, written by Robert Browning and illustrated by Kate Greenaway was originally published in 1888. Many of the earliest childrens books, particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before, are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive. Pook Press are working to republish these classic works in affordable, high quality, colour editions, using the original text and artwork so these works can delight another generation of children.
