Can Kate Morgan stand up for herself without being labeled a snitch? Kate is just as confused as her best friend, Lan, when she arrives at Cleary High to find the buildings been tagged with a life-size graffiti mural. Could the culprit be one of their friends or classmates? And is the kind-of-amazing creation really vandalism, or a work of art? Shes tempted to stay out of it mostly because, as the police chiefs daughter, shes worried about being labeled a snitch. But when the same mysterious graffiti starts appearing throughout the state, putting more pressure on the authorities to catch the vandal, her investigative instincts kick in. Now Eli, Kates favorite coworker at the local coffee shop, is MIA. With Lan preoccupied with her own boy troubles, Kate needs to figure out some things on her own. Like why she cant stop thinking about Eli. And what she will do when all the clues about the graffiti point to someone shes close to
