

Who is Frances Rain?

During a long, hot summer at her grandmothers cottage, 15 year old Lizzie just wants to get away from her bickering family - and especially her new stepfather. While exploring nearby Rain Island, Lizzie finds the ruins of a cabin and a pair of old spectacles. When she puts on the glasses, Lizzie can see mysterious people from the past. Who are these ghosts, and why are they appearing to her? What do they have to tell her about her troubled family? This compelling award winning story carries readers from the present to the past and back again. Winner of Canadian Library Association Young Adult Book Award 1st runner up of the Canadian Library Association Book of the Year Award
