

Revenge of the Dweeb

Alex, a fifth-grade bully, is ready to behave if it keeps his parents from sending him to Hollows Point military school. Hes not a bad kid; he just wants attention. Staying out of trouble shouldnt be too difficult if he controls himself. However, when his father holds a workplace incentive trip at the lakes, employees and their families are invited, including that of Nick, the school dweeb. Nick is Alexs most recent victim, one whose head he dumped freezing water on during the winter, leading to a scuffle and both of them being suspended. Unfortunately for Alex, Nick is holding a grudge. Alex must grin and bear it as prank after irritating prank is pulled by Nick. He would tell, but whod believe the normally mellow kid has a dark side? Even worse, when Alex accidentally hooks Nicks ear with a fishing line, Nick takes it as retaliation. The pranks elevate to unbearable levels, such as Nick lacing Alexs lemonade with Visine enough to make him horribly sick for a whole evening. With all out war being waged, one of the adults is bound to notice; punishment is imminent. Nick could get grounded, but Alex would have to give up public school for the dreadful Hollows Point. Alex must tough out the torture or get Nick caught. Although, there is one other option - to somehow make peace. REVENGE OF THE DWEEB is a 31,000-word Middle Grade story.
