

Playing For Love

For years now, Fiona has been known by everyone at school as Ross Mealings little sister. But now, as she begins her sophomore year of high school, she is determined to be known by a new title: Jordan Petersons girlfriend. The only problem with that plan? Jordan happens to be best friends with her brother, and after this year will be moving on to college. Hoping to act like the girls Jordan has dated in the past, Fiona joins the soccer team and does her best to make Jordan see her as more than just his best friends little sister. Will Fionas plan work in the end? Find out now in this sweet YA contemporary romance!
