

Gender Issues (Living with a Special Need)

Young people with gender issues often face misunderstanding and prejudice. People think they homosexual or just weird. Being an adolescent is hard enough for anyone but it's especially hard for young people who feel like they're trapped in the body of the wrong gender. In this book you will read about Kendra Campbell who was born a boy but feels like a girl. On the outside she's Kevin but on the inside, she knows her name is Kendra. As you read Kevin Kendra's story, you'll start to understand what gender really means. You'll find out how it feels to be trapped in a body of the wrong gender.
