

The Little Book of Poker

This outstanding selection of writings from the first regular poker column in a daily newspaper anywhere in the world traverses the poker universe, with stories about poker's games, names, and claims to fame. You'll visit the world's greatest poker venues, feel the emotions of the annual World Series, and relive some of the greatest hands ever played. Packed with information about the popular games hold'em, stud, Omaha, and high-low, The Little Book of Poker can improve your play whether you're an absolute beginner or a seasonal expert. You'll learn how to bet, when to bluff, when to drop, and when to pick up your chips and head for home.
