

The Department 19 Files: The Second Birth of Frankenstein (Department 19)

An all-new short story from the blood-pounding world of Department 19. In 1816, in the brutal wilderness of north America, a man with no history and no name is tied to a stake, his strange grey-green skin hidden beneath layers of warm clothing, as he and his captors wait out a night that seems to have no end. Danger is everywhere in this remote corner of the world. Bears and wolves roam the dark forest, and the cold can kill a man in his sleep. But there is something far worse moving silently through the trees. Something unnatural. Something hungry. In 1891, Abraham Van Helsing and a group of his friends faced Dracula, the world's first vampire and won. The survivors of that battle founded Department 19, and have been secretly saving the world ever since. A highly classified archive exists recording every act of bravery in that time. That archive is now open. These are the Department 19 Files.
