

Young Adult Romance: Red Carpet Dreams [YA Romance]

Young Adult Romance: Red Carpet Dreams [YA Romance] Daphne has just finished reading a screenplay. It is a one-man film about a man who goes into seclusion in the wilderness after having lost his entire family to a fire. She is in love with it and calls her friend, the writer and someone she knew in high school to tell her so. Daphne plans to go to Scotland for shooting and emails actors to do the film. After a series of rejections, she finally gets a yes, from a man named Jason Cox, a former A-List actor and heart throb. Daphne is surprised he would do the film. But as Jason explains, he is taking this role because no one will book him because of his troubled past. Characters: Daphne Withers: A former model as a teenager and young adult. Used the money she made to fund her own independent film. It made it to Sundance and was even nominated for an Oscar, allowing her to be the first woman of her age to have an Oscar nomination in the category of Best Director. However, after eight years passed and she fails to find inspiration or a project good enough to get her that Oscar, or any recognition, she is presented with a screenplay that makes her feel more than anything has in a long time. She is the epitome of a tortured artist: self-critical, socially awkward, a bit neurotic. She has a kind heart but will always protect herself first. Jason Cox: The A-list actor who agrees to the project because he has just gotten out of rehab for alcohol abuse and is looking for a redemption film. He is a child of two millionaire business workers; a playboy, a bachelor, a man who does not really know how to think of other people. But being stripped of all of his connections, thrown into rehab and, for all intents and purposes, forgotten, is a sobering experience. He is now determined to show the world that he is more than his bottle of Scotch. He is tall, with very dark hair and blue eyes. Extremely attractive and a little bit intimidating. Camera men: Billy and his wife Catherine. Billy is a down-to-earth childhood friend of Daphnes who does all of her projects. He met and married Catherine in film school and thus drags her along on all of his projects and vice versa. Catherine is a bit of a priss, but has a good heart.
