

The Gator Pit

Meet four classmates in their early teens, Cam, Darryl, Mole, and Louella --- each with a different set of values, each with a different home situation, each a testing ground for narrator Tod Whitney and his evolving moral compass. Early on in this coming of age story, Tod hops on to Moles short and fast track, a route that takes the reader into the local high schools gator pit and on to a ride fueled by the duos bullying, dishonesty, and sport of harassment. Tod follows Moles lead until it takes one of their victims, the least likely of friends, to open Tods heart and mind. With Moles determination to be the driving force, however, Tod discovers he is long past the chance for an easy exit from their reckless ride.
